Could you send me the reformatted agency table with the same changes?

Liz: please find attached the reformatted table on responses to public comments on the FEIS. As noted in the attachment, we removed the "substantive new comment" and the "reference" columns from the table and moved the response to the right of the comment for easier reading. We also added citations/references from the Final EIS, where appropriate, when an issue raised by a commenter was previously addressed. However, we left in the text that provided additional explanation to a comment. If you prefer that the additional explanation be removed, we can delete it; just let me know.

We have also reformatted the agency table and are awaiting any comment you may have—if any!
