Lawrence: Thanks.
It's still not working on our computers here, but it must be a problem at our end, not yours.

Ted, does it work for you? Can you access the DEIS online?

The Draft EIS is on the website, you should be able to download it by chapter from the left tab (clear cache and/or hit refresh?) at http://www.honolulutransit.org/. It works on both my work and home computer.

We have sent (Fed Ex) additional CDs for your attention. The video guide/summary of the EIS is in production and will be sent to EIS recipients as a follow-up in the next couple of weeks.

They need to post the DEIS on the project Web site. I asked Spurgeon by email where the DEIS will be posted on the Web and he hasn't responded, so I think that they may not be planning to post it.

Also they have a do-loop in their web site. Try it -- www.honolulutransit.org

We're good they agreed to everything on the NOA
They will be charging $57, the cost of printing for the printed copies
