I didn't plan on referring him to them for comment, but rather just identifying the name of the firm.

We could certainly remind the FMOC to refer any inquiries back here.

I don't think this guy is what you'd call press...he's more of an anti-rail advocate.

What do you think?

Our contractors do not speak for FTA and shouldn't be interviewed. FTA should manage all communication with the press. With Dulles for example did we let PMOCs talk to press?

Would you please tell us who is the Financial Management Oversight Contractor for the Honolulu transit project?
