Subject: Honolulu meeting Monday

Hi Jim, we're meeting with the Honolulu staff here starting at 8:30 Pacific time on Monday. I'm not sure how much we'll get done as they won't be close yet to having a final admin EIS, they are meeting with Army Corps Thursday and NPS today, and NPS has already said they didn't get materials soon enough to discuss in detail today. This is a recurring story, they still seem to owe agencies information they need for decisions. They are also meeting with EPA Monday afternoon and maybe NPS Tuesday of next week.

Anyway, we won't be discussing a complete admin FEIS, but we will maybe just go over how they plan to respond on some of the more significant comment areas. Anyway we can talk later this week a little on that.

Let me know how much you might be able to call in for on Monday.

thanks,

Ted
