KEEPING UP WITH HONOLULU'S RAIL TRANSIT PROJECT

Keep up with the Honolulu Rail Transit project and receive information about its progress, programs and business and community outreach efforts.

The Honolulu Authority for Rapid Transportation (HART) has several communication channels available for anyone who would like to learn more about the project.

- 24-Hour Project Hotline - (808) 566-2299
- Email - info@HonoluluTransit.org
- Website - www.HonoluluTransit.org
- eBlast - Sign up for weekly updates

- YouTube - HonoluluOnTheMove
- Facebook - Honolulu.Transit
- Twitter - @HNL_RTD

Olelo Community Media broadcasts HART's Honolulu On The Move monthly program, which airs on Olelo Channel 49 the first Monday of the month and every Sunday at 10:00 p.m. If you are unable to watch Honolulu On The Move at the time it airs, catch it on OleloNet, a video on demand service that makes it easy to view past shows!

HART's Shop & Dine on the Line program is a partnership between HART and dozens of businesses along the rail alignment in the Aiea, Pearl City and Waipahu areas. The program is part of HART's outreach services and is designed to assist businesses during construction. This program also provides special offers on products and services while supporting businesses in the community. For more information, visit www.ShopAndDineOnTheLine.com

In addition, HART provides informational presentations to businesses and organizations who would like to get a closer look at Honolulu's Rail Transit project. If your organization is interested, email info@HonoluluTransit.org for a tailored presentation. For a complete list of community events and meetings that HART regularly attends, visit www.HonoluluTransit.org
