Good Morning, Faith. It's crunch time; we're near the end of the road, but there is work to do. We'll need the final final version of the CD tomorrow (or as soon as you can get it to us), not the version that PB delivered this morning. Additionally, all of the § 4(f) comments will have to be addressed—none can be ignored. Without the final final version of the CD, which also addresses all of the § 4(f) comments, TCC will recommend that the document not be signed, in which case it will not be made available to anyone. It would be very disappointing to get this far and hit a wall. Carl
