Mark:

Thanks. This is mighty timely since we're having a conference call this afternoon to review the status of our review of the PE materials. An "in the mail" status on these items will clean up the Honolulu side of the ledger. The FTA side has reviews of the financial plan and a quick look at the revised materials that you are sending. I will let you know this afternoon where we stand after the conference call.

Jim,

When I get in this morning I will send you updated SCC worksheets and updated New Starts templates.

I have collected up all the forecast data for preservation and hope to get a FedEx package of DVDs and CDs out to you today.
