Faith and Lawrence,

I am available to join you Monday at 8 a.m., although I will need to leave by 9:30 for the Marine Corps meeting. The PB Americas office (or the DTS office) is fine. Betsy will be coming from Waikiki, so that should also work for her. Please let me know if the meeting is confirmed, as well as the location. Also please send a map and directions to Betsy and Elaine.

As far as other meeting times, the Navy meetings are scheduled to end Friday at noon, so that afternoon is potentially open (although that is very late on the East Coast if anyone wants to call in), assuming that the Navy meeting goes as planned. We may all be very, very tired and likely to be short-tempered, so be prepared to be very accommodating.

Aloha,

Hi Betsy –

We welcome the opportunity to meet with you to discuss your comments in-person. The only person who would not be able to be at the 8:00 a.m. meeting on Monday would be Stephanie Foell, the architectural/landscape historian, from PB. She is the main person who worked on the PA. She will be back in Honolulu on Wednesday and would be able to meet in person later in the week, like Friday. On Monday, she will be able to participate by phone.

By copy of this email, I am also informing the signatories of this meeting.

Please let me know if Monday at 8:00 a.m. would be the only time you would be able to meet. Any suggestions as to where? You are welcome to come to our office.

Faith

Faith and Lawrence,

I wanted to write to inquire whether we might be able to use the 8 AM time slot this coming Monday morning after all, at least for an informal meeting with a relatively small group.

The Marines have shifted their meeting to 10 AM, in order to accommodate your previous proposal to meet first thing in the morning, so Historic Hawaii Foundation would have that time available after all. (I believe Elaine may not arrive until mid-day, but she can correct me on that.)

It would be especially useful for me to have the opportunity for an in-person meeting to discuss our comments, since I have not had the ability to be on-site for any of our prior consultation meetings.

Our schedule with the Navy is really packed Tuesday through Thursday, so I was hoping to take advantage of a more flexible schedule on Monday.

Please let me know if this might work for your schedules.

Mahalo, Betsy
