Hi Jim -

Currently, we have Sunday, August 10th reserved for a scanning tour with you and Ted. Monday, August 11th is a travel day for many of the people who will be attending the SF meeting. Most of the people have plans to fly out at around noon or early afternoon of August 11th.

Unless we hear otherwise, these are our plans.

Faith

Send me your proposed schedule for the tour.

I'll schedule my travel around it.

Jim

Who besides Jim and Ted are scheduled to travel to Honolulu?

As Spock said in the radioactive chamber: The needs of the many outweigh the needs of the few.

Faith raised an interesting point - would it make more sense to hold the ADEIS briefing in Honolulu on Monday, if FTA is traveling anyway? FTA could travel Sunday, have a briefing Monday morning to allow for east coast participation by phone (as well as SF participation), then follow up with a afternoon tour. Then FTA travels back on Tuesday.

It would allow Jim to have a more direct trip and avoid detouring through SF, and the follow up workshop with the PMOC's and other project staff could be scheduled to best suit those participants.

It seems worth discussing.

I'm on leave and will not be checking my emails any more today, so I'll go with what ever is decided.
