Faith, let's reschedule when we can get the consulting parties available. In retrospect Blythe has a good point. We do have some more information to share since as was requested by the group, FTA did some research on past practices and had some internal discussions on the areas under discussion. This may help us move forward and allow us to discuss clarifying some of the more general impacts under discussion and identifying specific mitigation for those impacts. Lets try to do that as soon as possible.

I'm available all next week except Friday.

thanks,

Ted

Faith:

I am not available at that time this afternoon for a conference call. Also, any consultation meetings about the PA draft and what it includes should be convened with the participation of all consulting parties. At this point, ACHP has provided what comments we can on the current draft in our letter of 8/12/09.

Sincerely,

Blythe Semmer
