Gordon,

I have a question on the OMPO TIP.

Page 143 shows $200 million in local funds programmed for construction of the High Capacity Transit Corridor Project. Isn't this a bit optimistic, if not unrealistic, that you will be in constriction in FY 09? And why are local construction funds programmed in 2009, 2010, and 2011 when you don't expect federal funds for construction to be available until 2012? The staging of the construction funds in confusing and not really representative of how the funding will likely proceed as a new starts project.
