From my reading of the situation, the principal behind the three opposing votes was that the council should make the final decision, not an outside panel. After listening to the debates, I didn't hear anyone opposed to the convening of an expert panel. The issue was what is the panel's level of authority?

This is great news! We received a copy of the article in the paper which stated that the City Council passed the measure that allowed the panel of experts to select the vehicle technology. Please keep us updated on the progress.
