Hi Kiersten,

I am sorry to hear there has been no response to your e-mails. I am cc'ing the folks at PB that I have worked with (I don't know Nalani). I trust someone will get in touch with you. Thanks for letting me know the status.

Aloha,
Ann

Ann,
FYI, since I received the call from Nalani Dahl on May 1 asking if I wanted a briefing, I haven't heard anything else. I gave Nalani some available dates and she's never gotten back to me, despite me sending her a couple of emails asking what progress is being made.

Obviously, we're not just going to let this go. Since the PR people seem unable to schedule a meeting (or even respond to email), I'll go back to contacting the city directly.
