Attached are Beth's comments on the memo. My update today responded to her detailed comments. Her comments had no implications for the structure of the memo, other than adding the detailed comments from the PMOCs organized into four subheadings.

Attached are my comments on the PE approval memo. In many sections you did not follow the format provided in the draft approval memo guidance document which I would prefer. I will provide edits on the letter early Friday morning.

Attached are final drafts of both documents that have been edited and approved by the New Starts team for Honolulu. Leslie has participated throughout the editing.

Do you want to review this before we put a package of paper together, or should we proceed with the package?
